

Play. Learn. Save. The two programmes parents talk about at the school gate.

Agodi builds technology for African families. These two products give your pupils safe, African-made screen time that actually teaches — learning through play, and real money habits — while your school leads as the most forward-thinking in its community.

THE TWO PROGRAMMES

PlayOlu — Learn Through Play

Ad-free African learning games & stories · playolu.com

Learning games and bedtime stories starring Olu the Play Hero — African-inspired, completely ad-free and COPPA-compliant, built for ages 0–12.

- ✓ Numeracy, literacy and culture taught through play
- ✓ Screen time the school can endorse — no ads, no strangers, no chat
- ✓ Stories and heroes that look like your pupils
- ✓ Family Pass licensing — one licence covers the whole household

Olu Piggy Bank — Money Habits

"Little Coins. Big Dreams." · olupiggybank.com

A premium savings app for children: Save, Spend and Give jars, streaks, XP and badges, and a Financial Literacy Academy — every action under parent approval.

- ✓ Financial literacy as a structured school programme
- ✓ School savings clubs and classroom challenges
- ✓ Save / Spend / Give — values, not just numbers
- ✓ Parents approve everything; the school sees engagement, not money

HOW THE PARTNERSHIP WORKS

1

Meet & scope

30 minutes with school leadership to pick classes and term plan.

2

Pilot one term

Pilot classes get full access to both programmes, teachers onboarded.

3

Parents on board

Co-branded letters and a parents' evening demo included.

4

Review together

End-of-term review with usage and feedback from teachers, pupils, parents.

5

Roll out

School-wide licensing at founding-partner pricing, renewed termly.

WHAT THE SCHOOL GAINS

- ✓ Differentiation: a visible learning-technology programme competitors don't have.
- ✓ African-made, values-safe content — parent controls throughout, no data selling. Ever.
- ✓ Life skills beyond academics: pupils graduate with saving habits, not just grades.
- ✓ Founding-partner pricing locked in permanently for early schools.

WHAT AGODI PROVIDES

- ✓ All licences for pilot classes across both programmes.
- ✓ Onboarding for teachers and parents, plus co-branded letters and posters.
- ✓ A parents' evening demo run with our team.
- ✓ Direct support line — your feedback shapes what we build next.

THE PILOT OFFER — FIRST TERM FREE

We are selecting a founding cohort of schools in Lagos and Johannesburg. Pilot-term access to both programmes for selected classes, fully supported, at no cost — in exchange for structured feedback and a case study we build together.
